TAYLOR HALL.
JNO. M. APP respectfully informs the public generally that he has leased for a term of years, the well known tavern stand in Evansville formerly kept by E. Ehrsam, and lately by Benj. Nurre. The place has been thoroughly repaired, and handsomely fitted up with entire new furniture, and those of the travelling public who may favor him with a call, may rest assured that their comfort and convenience will meet with every attention. His Table will always be supplied with the best that the market affords, and his Bar furnished with the choicest liquors, carefully selected by an experienced hand.
Attached to the Hall, and immediately on the public Square, are his stables, acknowledged by all to be the most spacious and convenient in the place. aug 26, 1847-f

SHERWOOD HOUSE.
FIRST STREET, EVANSVILLE, INDIANA.
THE undersigned having become proprietors of the above well known establishment, beg to leave to offer their services to the public and to solicit a share of patronage. They hope to be able to continue the enjoyment under the management of Mr. Sherwood. No exertions will be spared to give universal satisfaction to all. The Table and the Bar will be abundantly furnished, and the rooms kept clean and neat. Charges as heretofore moderate. nov 4-f

PRIVATE BOARDING HOUSE.
THE undersigned has opened a Private Boarding House in the Brick Building on Water Street, above Main, known as the "Wheeler House." My object is to keep a house for the accommodation of gentlemen principally. There are accommodations for four very pleasant rooms in the house, which can be fitted up for the accommodation of small families. The table shall not be surpassed by any in the city.
Nov. 4th A. FARNSWORTH.

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.
THIS institution is distinguished by the following peculiarities:—
1. Where the premiums are over $50, it requires only one quarter part in cash, instead of the whole.
2. It allows the assured to pay yearly, quarterly, monthly or weekly.
3. No part of the profits are withheld, or diverted from the assured, either in charity or otherwise.
4. It has no loan, either nominal or real, to pay interest for, having a sufficient capital funded, from premiums received.
5. The assured can withdraw his profits, or have them to accumulate, year by year, at his option.
6. It assures to the age of 67, instead of stopping at 60.
7. It declares the profits yearly, instead of once in five or seven years, and issues scrip yearly to the Assured, bearing 6 per cent interest—which scrip is deemed in cash, when the profits amounted to $200,000, or allowed to accumulate at the option of the Assured.
8. It enables a man to provide for his wife and children in such a way, that although he may lose every thing, they are safe; and all persons, whether married or unmarried, to provide for Old Age, Sickness and Want, as well as for Death.
9. The Assured can surrender the policy at any time after the first year, and receive its equitable value.
10. At any time after the first year, the Assured can borrow on the scrip issued, two-thirds of its amount, so that he has nothing to fear from a change of circumstances, or inability to pay the premium.
11. Directors and Officers are chosen yearly; and the Assured votes according to his interest.
12. The funds are all invested in United States, New York, New Jersey and Massachusetts stocks, and in Real Estate in New York and New Jersey, wholly unincumbered, and of double the value lent.
13. It pays no Directors, no Auditors, no Solicitors. It lends money to neither.
14. It does not reckon the Assured a year older than he is—but from six months less to six months more, so as to equalize the estimate between all parties.
15. The rates are lower, the expenses less, and the profits larger, than with Foreign Offices; investments here yielding from 6 to 7 per cent—abroad only 3 per cent.—to say nothing of 33-1-3 per cent reserved; nor of interest allowed to those who furnish a "guarantee capital," at the rate of 5 per cent, on every hundred pounds subscribed, for every ten pounds paid in.
16. Instead of encouraging, every precaution is taken to prevent, a forfeiture of the policy.
17. The liability of the Assured is limited by Law, to the amount of his premium paid.

DOCT. COOK tends his acknowledgments to his numerous patients, for the confidence and reliance reposed in his skill and ability in the important and critical department of the profession, to which he continues to devote his attention, viz: the diseases of the EYE and EAR. Having devoted the last fifteen years to the study and practice in this branch of medicine, he feels assured that he can even the most intricate cases he can accomplish a permanent and safe cure. His success heretofore warrants this degree of confidence in any case that may be presented. Persons who are unfortunately afflicted with disease of either the EYE or the EAR, are invited to call and seek relief.

SELECT SCHOOLS.
The Male Academy and Female Seminary will Dec. 1st, commence their Fall Session the first Monday in September.
The school-year consists of two sessions of 22 weeks each; the tuition payable quarterly as heretofore. Pupils can commence at any time, though it is exceedingly desirable and important that they enter at the beginning of the term, when subjects of study are begun and organized for a less time than half a Session. Deduction will be made for absence in case of protracted illness.
The Seminary comprises two departments, PRIMARY and ACADEMIC, occupying distinct yet contiguous apartments, being under one general supervision, and constituting in reality but one school; the studies of the Primary Department being preparatory to the more advanced ones of the Academical course.
The Academical Department is arranged into three classes, characterized by the branches studied by them respectively, and denominated for convenience sake, the Junior, Middle and Senior Classes.
JUNIOR STUDIES.—Arithmetic, Geography, Ancient and Modern History, Eng. Grammar, Watts on the Mind, and Natural Philosophy.
MIDDLE CLASS.—Algebra (finished), Algebra, Natural History, Botany, Chemistry, Astronomy, Anatomy, & Physiology.
SENIOR CLASS.—Geometry, Rhetoric, Logic, Natural Theology and Evidences of Christianity.
The above course is the more common, and in our judgment one which should, in its general outlines, be pursued by those desiring a systematic and thorough education.
The Male Academy, designed more particularly for those studying the classics, and higher English branches, will be conducted on the same plan and terms as during the past year.
VOCAL MUSIC.—A course of forty lessons, (two each week) will be given out of school hours, on the elementary principles of vocal music, for those who are not members of the day school as well as for those who are. Those who have never studied music as a science, will find the course adapted to them.
